O sistema gera uma mensagem para a editora. Able (aceita) ou Unable (não aceita).

OBS: não há problema algum em recusar. Problema é atrasar o processo!
Quando você aceita (ou não) fazer a avaliação, a editora recebe imediatamente um email comunicando o fato.
Se sua decisão for por não avaliar, a editora pode então solicitar rapidamente a outro revisor uma avaliação.
Se você demora a comunicar e ainda por cima comunica que não pode, você atrasa muito o processo editorial.
Portanto, colaborar com o OBPN é mais do que avaliar.
